

GET SOME WINE

CURATED LIVE MUSIC FOR REFINED CORPORATE EVENTS

An exceptional corporate event is not a sequence of separate moments, but an experience shaped with intention.

Music connects these moments, enhances the atmosphere and sets the rhythm of the evening – from the welcome reception to networking, from dinner to the dance floor.

Never present to draw attention to itself.
But felt, natural and precisely where it belongs.

Welcome to the musical world of GetSomeWine.

WHO WE ARE

When you contact us, you speak directly with me:

Oljana Weyler

Lead Singer · Music Planner · Music Director GetSomeWine

For many years, I have guided private and corporate events where music is not merely present, but actively supports and structures the flow of the evening.

My role goes beyond performing.

I safeguard the musical direction, anticipate atmosphere and timing, and ensure that each moment transitions naturally – with clarity and calm, without you having to manage it.

Behind me stands a carefully selected collective of professional musicians who share the same commitment to nuance, elegance and quality.

Together, we form GetSomeWine: a musical world where craftsmanship and sensitivity meet. Your event does not simply sound good – it finds balance in every transition, every pause and every movement.

OUR VISION

MUSIC WITH DIRECTION, CALM AND IMPACT

Good live music enhances a moment.
Thoughtfully curated music makes a corporate event memorable.

When the musical build is coherent, preparation becomes smoother and the event unfolds naturally.
Transitions feel effortless.
Silence gains meaning.
Energy evolves without needing to be forced.

Music becomes not a separate element, but a subtle force that connects everything – from the welcome reception to the evening celebration, from interaction to movement.

At GetSomeWine, we do not believe in coincidence when it comes to important moments.
We believe in attention, timing and sensitivity to what an event truly requires.

That is why we do not create isolated performances, but a musical experience that aligns seamlessly with the rhythm of your event.

LIVE CONCEPTS

MUSIC IN THE RIGHT FORM, AT THE RIGHT MOMENT

INTIMATE & ELEGANT FORMATIONS

Duo | Trio | Quartet | Quintet

These formations provide refined live music during the welcome reception, walking dinner, award moments, speeches and networking sessions. They create a stylish musical foundation that grows with the space, the audience and the energy – from understated and controlled to warm and engaging.

STROLLING BANDS

Duo | Trio | Quartet | Quintet

Our strolling bands bring live music directly among your guests, without disturbing the natural flow of interaction. The musicians move freely throughout the venue, creating a warm and elegant atmosphere that connects while remaining discreet. Ideal for receptions, walking dinners and informal networking moments where music enhances the setting – without interrupting professional conversations.

DJ-LIVE & FESTIVE CONCEPT

Live vocals and instruments are combined with a carefully built DJ set, allowing the energy to rise gradually and the atmosphere to evolve into a vibrant celebration. This format brings interaction, movement and a distinct party dynamic. Often used during dinner between program segments or after an award ceremony, when the evening can naturally transition into a lively dance floor.

PARTYBAND

For the evening celebration, we offer a full live band with strong stage presence and a repertoire firmly focused on dance and energy. The stage becomes central and the audience is actively engaged in a powerful live experience. Ideal for a high-energy corporate evening with a full dance floor.

MUSICAL GUIDANCE & BESPOKE APPROACH

Every corporate event requires a specific level of strategic alignment.

At GetSomeWine, a thoughtfully structured musical build forms the foundation of our approach. We safeguard repertoire, timing and dynamics so that the music aligns seamlessly with your objectives, target audience and program flow.

Some organizations entrust us fully with the musical direction.

Others share themes, brand values or key messages that can be translated into music. In both cases, we ensure coherence, professionalism and a natural progression throughout the event.

When music plays a structural role within the overall concept – for example supporting branding, a product launch or scenography – we offer a more in-depth trajectory through a dedicated music consultation.

During this consultation, we align content, timing and experience in a strategic manner.

This ensures that the musical identity remains clear, coherent and fully aligned with the objectives of your event.

The concrete details of this trajectory are always defined in consultation with the organizer or event partner.

TECHNICAL & SOUND

Clear sound quality and discreet technical support are essential to the overall experience.

When required, we collaborate with external technical partners or integrate seamlessly with the venue's existing installation, ensuring smooth execution and professional delivery.

WHY CHOOSE GETSOMEWINE

Music does not only define the atmosphere of an event – it shapes how your guests experience and remember it.

Organizations choose GetSomeWine when they are looking for more than background music – they seek direction, refinement and a musical experience that strengthens the overall concept.

What you can expect:

- refined live music, tailored to your audience and setting
- one dedicated point of contact, from initial briefing to execution
- a carefully curated musical progression supporting the program
- clear communication and professional coordination
- an elegant presence that enhances without dominating
- calm and confidence throughout preparation and delivery

Allowing you to focus on your guests and objectives, while the musical experience is carried with coherence and professionalism.
